Core Capabilities

What Makes Our Services and Solutions Unique?

Health Services

- Regulatory Compliance and Privacy
- Health Information Technology
- Public Health
- Facility Operations and Logistics

We have an established team of experts and specialists to deliver immediate impact and results.

Our senior management team has more than 25 years of proven experience delivering professionals with expertise in the services and markets we serve and we combine this with the agility to quickly assemble focused teams anywhere in the U.S. that are tailored to meet customer-specific skill requirements. We differentiate ourselves in the marketplace by seeing beyond simple solutions, working with and understanding our clients, expanding boundaries, and thinking creatively and comprehensively to find connections that others fail to see.

Energy Services

- Energy Management
- Energy Information
- High Performance Buildings
- Clean Energy

We are easy to work with, creative, and agile.

We pride ourselves on our reputation as being easy to work with and we have extensive experience executing both large and small government contracts. We bring large business capabilities, systems, and processes combined with small business creativity, agility, and responsiveness, so we can implement new ideas quickly, benefitting our clients sooner.

Environmental Services

- Environmental Management
- Data Analytics and Geospatial Analysis
- Scientific and Technical Support
- Environmental Health and Safety
- Climate Change and Sustainability

We strive to have your perspective.

As a trusted advisor, we see the challenge in the context of each client's financial, political, and regulatory environment, and learn to incorporate the views, outlook, and risk sensitivity of our clients as key factors in our solutions, recommendations, and work products.

We are transparent and build trust.

We have developed a successful model of partnership that is based on transparency, trust, and high-quality results. We are trusted and respected for our integrity, accountability, open communication, and the high quality of everything that we do.

We are disciplined in running our business and executing work

We know that the details count, and we pride ourselves on consistently doing the little things well. This allows us to keep our promises and deliver high quality work products on schedule, on budget, and on target.

We are passionate about delivering results and work as a true partner — where your challenges are our priorities
